Dear JM

I am in the process of writing my own paper. Could you ask Ted if I can have permission to use his term SIS the next time you see him or correspond with him, or could you tell me where I can get in touch with him. I wrote to an address in Fate magazine somewhere in Oregon. Could you ask Ted if he got my letter?

Most importantly could you reinforce upon Ted that he must be more aware of the struggle between good and evil, and his role in that struggle. The spiritual underworld exists as sure as you and I exist..It is a kind of anti-spirit which can convert to spirit and spirit can ~~be~~ revert back to it, with the loss of energy of course. This is part of the quantum aspects of the spiritual which I explore in my paper. Let him remember, and let all others who do the same remember, as I'm sure they know in their hearts and needn't be told, that converting spirit into anti spirit and by means of distorting it, and thereby reaping the benefits of the energy given off by this destruction, is of benefit only to the individual perpetrator of the evil, and contributes to the 'natural' state of the universe which is atrophy, or the dissipation of energy and the consequent desecration of matter. Time is also altered but I won't go into that here. Let it suffice to say that turning the supernatural, parapsychological and panaphysical to evil means is a sure way to the rapid destruction of the human race, and according to the strength and efficiency of that evil power and Mr. Owens' is no doubt considerable, the effect will be far greater than you have in fact imagined.

I think
...all
I think with some simple, carefully well placed guidance, I and other people, and the intelligences who are assisting us, can bring Ted round to the side of good, in no time at all if he lets us. Times have changed since Moses. And times have changed since Jesus a thousand years later. What we need now is a universal (international) spirituality but very elite spirituality, working to steer humanity toward future harmony with the Devine Order of the Universe, and this can only be done in conjunction with the Great Will behind that Devine Order which is in everyone of us. On the other side however we have the inevitable abyss. Mr. Ted Owens must, instead of helping us to rush towards that abyss, start helping is to put the brakes on.

Yours Sincerely,

B-20-40

P.S. Jeffrey I hope I haven't been too outspoken about Ted's evil qualities, but I feel it is wrong to pussy foot around issues never uttering anything but non-committal trivia, like the politicians and other establishment figures. I can only assume they have the same level of comprehension in private as they do in public. Look at the current situation in the world and see if I'm not right in saying I think this is a cause of a lot of the difficulty, of people not getting up and saying what they think even if they're wrong. At least it might bring out something in other people which they might not of even known they had.

Could I impose upon you still further and ask you to some address of people, Vallee, Harder, Sprinkle & Schwartz in particular. I think they would make a splendid partnership of one sort of another. I too am in need of a lot of help and guidance having embarked on this adventure ^{only} slightly more than a year ago.
