MEMO: TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Very recently lightning struck, and left its mark, on a Titan missile at Cape Kennedy, Florida.

It was my lightning.

Next, Hurricane Cleo formed and descended on . . . Cape Kennedy, Florida.

It was my hurricane.

You are, of course, quite skeptical, and will think, of course, that it would be impossible to be true.

Anyone can check with the Space Agency at Cape Kennedy...or the State Department in Washington, D. C., and if they tell the truth they will tell you that I informed them weeks in advance of the above two events.

I even wired the Space Agency that I could stop Hurricane Cleo from striking it . . . even before Cleo reached Miami. They did not reply, so I had no alternative but to let Cleo take her route, which I had laid out for her. (Over three hundred million dollars in damage could have been avoided.)

But, there are more important matters than a few hundred million dollars loss. . . hence this unusual communication. And, I might add, the aforementioned 'catastrophes' are merely a sample of what lies ahead.

Do I think that I've been elected to 'save the world'? No. Do I think, perhaps, that I am God? No. Or Jesus? No. I am not insane or psychotic. I am a human being, utterly astonished at what is being dealt out through me, by Nature. And, I might add, I am quite willing to accept the awesome responsibility given to me by Nature. . . in spite of the lumps that I know I shall receive from my fellow humans.

(It is extremely important that the reason for my "PK" ability) (to cause storms; to direct lightning bolts; to form and guide hurricanes; to cause fires far away from myself; to sink subs far away in the ocean; to cause missiles to explode in their silos) be understood by all.)

Nature (God) is dedicated to the perpetuation of the human race of mankind. But mankind, at present, is seemingly dedicated toward its own obliteration and destruction. "Man's inhumanity to man" is the banner now flying. Nature, therefore, must step in, in an unusual manner, and show the world, by demonstration, that Nature... not mankind...controls the preservation of the species. That Nature's own secrets hold far greater power and scope than do H-bombs and stockpiles of war materials.

Nature has, oddly enough, appointed me as its human voice and representative... to speak its intelligence to you.

Furthermore, Nature is fully aware that without signs and wonders you wouldn't believe me. Nature has, therefore, endowed me with unbelievable powers - a small demonstration of which I have already made.*

This is what Nature is saying, through my pen:

First, it is absolutely necessary that my own country and Government (which has the Bible and Christianity at its core) be convinced of the basic truth of this message. Nature is eager, and completely, wholeheartedly, willing to back me up in any constructive move to bring this about. (Should I misuse this infinite power placed in my hands by a trusting but omnipresent Nature, then it will transfer the power to a more worthy human, to carry on the program. People can be stopped, but Nature never.)

Then, after my own Government is convinced, this dynamic power of Nature will be directed, focused, upon the mouldy, rotting spots of mankind - and these spots eliminated, so that mankind will stop deteriorating and grow healthy.

Mark this: All materials of warfare must be transformed into plowshares - or else. Or else Nature will chastise the erring country with catastrophe after catastrophe. Earthquake, fire, famine, flood, sickness. Nature will select the proper catastrophes to bring the unbelieving country to its knees.

Gana Karmadv.

Let Krushchev say "God and Religion - phooey! The State will give you candy."

Let Papa Duvalier say "My voodoo devils are greater than your God."

Let Castro say "Cuba and Russia are friends...we need no God."

But Nature wishes to make some drastic changes.

Working from my own country, and protected by my government, I will direct certain powers of Nature onto any country filled with the spirit of hate and killing and war. My own country, observing the results, will, when peace in the world is assured, lay aside all weapons of war - or else. And return to a stronger faith in the absolute power of God and Nature than now exists among its peoples.

Perhaps from reading this it will be thought that I am 'some kind of nut' - or religious fanatic. But what you may think is really irrelevant and immaterial, for Nature will be heard. It's voice is coming through, loud and clear.

You can expect to continue to see signs and wonders, until you believe.

Until Nature's voice is recognized, and fully obeyed.
