Those honking geese may be trying to give us a warning

CORVALLIS (AP) — If you think you've been hearing things when Canada geese have been "Harronking" in Oregon skies the past two weeks, it isn't your hearing that's all fowled up.

It's nature's alarm clock.

Federal biologists say waterfowl have been migrating unusually early, possibly escaping what they might sense as a harsh and early winter.

Palmer Sekora, project leader for three federal wildlife refuges in the Willamette Valley, said Wednesday that ducks and Canada geese have been flying south over Western Oregon for the past two weeks, at least a month ahead of schedule.

Heavy accumulations of ducks have been noticed along the Oregon Coast, and one of several sightings of migrating geese in the Willamette Valley was made by a bewildered helicopter pilot.

Ducks and geese normally wait until early October to start their migration south. It is widely believed the migratory instinct is triggered more by the length of the days than the weather.

But Sekora said unseasonal storms might have started the birds moving early.

"I can't figure out what's going on," he said.

None of the migrating geese have been stopping at the valley's refuges.

Hikers dead, missing as Sierras get snow

RIDGECREST, Calif. (AP) — Three people died and at least 17 others were missing Wednesday after Tropical Storm Norman dropped heavy snow on hikers in the Sierras.

A possible fourth death was reported, but rescuers were unable to reach the location where a helicopter pilot reported seeing a man lying in a sleeping bag with no apparent sign of life.

Search and rescue teams in Mono and Inyo counties rescued a number of stranded hikers as the storm dumped up to 5 inches of snow in scattered areas of the mountains, but at least another 17 hikers were unaccounted for.

Inyo County sheriff's deputy John Dorsey said the mountain searches were hampered by intermittent rains and overcast conditions.

"At this time, we have no way of knowing how many people might be in trouble," said Dorsey.

Southern Californians, braced for high waves and flood waters, were spared as the inland mountain areas received the brunt of what force remained in the one-time hurricane. Los Angeles received 0.35 inch of rain, its first measurable amount since April 30.

However, Sun-Maid Raisin Growers of California, which produces 40 percent of the nation's raisins, halted its sales worldwide Wednesday until Norman's damage to the 1978 crop could be assessed.

Inyo County officials found the bodies of two men and one woman at two locations in the Mount Whitney area, authorities said. Mount Whitney, at 14,495 feet, is the highest peak in the United States outside Alaska.

Searchers found the bodies of the two men at the 12,000-foot level. The woman's body was discovered near Lake Sabrina.

No identifications were immediately available.

A rescue helicopter that flew over the area near where the woman's body was found reported seeing a man lying face down in a sleeping bag. Authorities said the man was believed to be the companion of the dead woman, but rescuers were unable to reach the location given by the helicopter pilot.

Jeffrey oh lord!

The Editor,
The Washington Post.

Please refer to my previous files sent to you.

Today we are not making earthquakes occur on the West Coast, with the "bullseye" San Francisco. Instead, something is going to occur on a much vaster scale. And...I have no part in it whatsoever.

Last Saturday night, September 16, 1978, the UFOs with which I am connected, contacted me telepathically, at my home, and gave me a strange message, at about 9 PM. I called a scientist, Jeffrey Mishlove, in San Francisco, long distance, to notify him, but he was not available on the phone, so I telephoned Dr. Milan Ryzl* in San Jose, California, gave him the message and asked him to relay it on to Mishlove. This is the message that the UFOs gave me:

They are unhappy about my rough going, and how my excellent demonstrations are being received by humans. So they are going to have to do something about it. They, the UFOs, are going to kick the stuffings out of this planet, this earth, using a combination of psi-force and other-dimensional powers...batter the earth, from one end to the other.
The results of this strange attack upon earth? Storms not dreamed of. Hurricanes. Tornadoes. Earthquakes. Lightning attacks. Floods.
Like nothing anyone alive has ever seen.
Plus other phenomena, like mental illness worldwide...people behaving crazily...animals, insects, etc., behaving crazily...electromagnetic anomalies and power blackouts everywhere...you name it thusly, and it will happen.
They will cease this attack by the first of the year, 1979.
This demonstration by the UFOs...will be on a much higher plane...than any ever given before.
This is totally the UFOs idea, and their execution of the idea. I have no part in it other than to act as spokesman for them.

I am aware that my letters, and this one especially, sound like the ravings of a madman. To anyone not familiar with me and my work, that is. But to those familiar with me and my work...this message will come as a fearsome shock.
Once again I refer you to a scientific report done on me and my work, by scientists, available for $7 at The Washington Street Research Center, 3101 Washington Street, San Francisco, California, 94115.

Sincerely,

Ted Owens (PK Man)

Jeffrey... just talked LD to Elaine Sanders, your friend. Tell her Sunday is not verboten if she wouldn't mind watching pro football with me. (I am sure she thinks pro football is yucky.)
Tell her, true, I'm 58, but the motel in Frisco you dropped into while the kids & I were there, had a night club and I sat in and drummed, jammed, with the hot combo they had there... & didn't miss a beat! Drummed rock solid. Some of the audience bought me drinks after & one man in the audience told me I was a "great" drummer. I also did a flow show there for free, and did psychometric readings on strangers out of the audience. 100% accurate, according to the read-ees Also recently was on a camping trip with some friends, and unlimbered my throwing knives... and can still throw

...rem like homing pigeons to the bullseye! (Remembering my smashed elbow ~~~~ several years ago... feared I couldn't throw again.) Tell her done threw knives around Steve Allen's head on his Hollywood
TV show.
Anyway... I may be 58, but ha ha. I'm full of life that she'll not see
in other people much. mucha vida.
& no more thing... if she brings her male friend. Be sure & bring his boxing gloves!!
Haven't worked out since 1945
with boxing (did master judo

Elaine mentioned a thousand "if".
Tell Elaine a benefactor has given me 50,000 with no strings attached to help me.
Also, many pupils have given me that thousand to train them with my mind training system which take one day, two at the most.
Her friend's thousand is a weak offering for what he wants. And I speak with #10 in the bank. But that's me, you know?

"What angers me, and saddens me... is that Mishlove & his associated scientists do not accord me enough respect to send scientists to me with reference to what I am doing..

Like Rodney Dangerfield, "I don't get no respect." me. Who could destroy the world as you-all know it. No respect.

A pity.

PPS...

At this point, Elaine, I am disgusted! Have done ~~most of them~~ 432 miracles, many of them thoroughly documented. And no one will help me. Am down to a few dollars now. Suppose... I took the Idea...

"destroy the human race as it is..." and applied my psi power to that idea.

Shame this is Jeffrey Mishlove

Over

PPPS... The above will happen automatically if I'm killed by one goon.

Ted

Tell Elaine... I do need the thousand, to get on balance! It's better than the $40 I now have.
But not on an "if" basis. That
Ted. means enemy to me.

Explains the SI's recent very and radical action. They knew this was coming up in advance!

Jeffrey... just a note to tell you that the owner of this house we rent is tossing us out. Says he's selling the house. After we've settled in, got both kids into school; new baby etc.

So... that ruins us. No place to move to (people are waiting in line to get into this swell town, at real estate agencies); no money to move with this time, even if there were a place.

Am just filling you in on things so that you can follow the action. I'll bet the SI's are furious over this revolting development! Ted Gwens
